From Father Kasel

Praised be Jesus Christ through Mary!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,

The month of October is dedicated to growing in devotion to the Holy Rosary. Let us all joyfully take up this beautiful devotion each day! Sometimes, however, it may be difficult for us to understand the importance and the need we have for praying the Holy Rosary. To help us understand, I include an excerpt from the book, The Secret of the Rosary by St. Louis Marie de Montfort:

"It would hardly be possible for me to put into words how much Our Lady thinks of the Holy Rosary and of how she vastly prefers it to all other devotions. Neither can I sufficiently express how highly she rewards those who work to preach the devotion, to establish it and spread it, nor on the other hand how firmly she punishes those who work against it.

All during life, Saint Dominic had nothing more at heart than to praise Our Lady, to preach her greatness and to inspire everybody to honor her by saying her Rosary. As a reward he received countless graces from her; exercising her great power as Queen of Heaven she crowned his labors with many miracles and prodigies. Almighty God always granted him what he asked through Our Lady. The greatest honor of all was that she helped him crush the Albigensian heresy and made him the founder and patriarch of a great religious order.

As for Blessed Alan de la Roche who restored the devotion to the Rosary, he received many privileges from Our Lady; she graciously appeared to him several times to teach him how to work out his salvation, to become a good priest and perfect religious, and how to pattern himself on Our Lord.

He used to be horribly tempted and persecuted by devils, and then deep sadness would fall upon him and sometimes he used to be near to despair---but Our Lady always comforted him by her sweet presence which banished the clouds of darkness from his soul. She taught him how to say the Rosary, explaining its value and the fruits to be gained by it and gave him a great and glorious privilege: the honor of being called her new spouse. As a token of her chaste love for him she placed a ring upon his finger and a necklace made of her own hair about his neck and gave him a Rosary.

Father Triteme Carthagena and Martin of Navarre (both very learned men) and others as well have spoken of him in terms of the highest praise. Blessed Alan died at Zunolle in Flanders September 8th, 1475, after having brought over one hundred thousand people into the Confraternity.

Blessed Thomas of Saint John was well known for his sermons on the Most Holy Rosary, and the devil, jealous of the success he had with souls, tortured him so much that he fell ill and was sick so long that the doctors gave him up. One night when he really thought that he was dying, the devil appeared to him in the most horrible form imaginable. There was a picture of Our Lady near his bed; he looked at it and cried with all his heart and soul and strength: 'Help me, save me, my sweet, sweet Mother!' No sooner had he said this than the picture seemed to come alive and Our Lady put out her hand, took him by the arm and said: 'Do not be afraid, Thomas my son, here I am and I am going to save you: get up now and go on preaching my Rosary as you used to do. I promise to shield you from your enemies.'

When Our Lady said this the devil fled and Blessed Thomas got up, finding that he was in perfect health. He then thanked the Blessed Mother with tears of joy. He resumed his Rosary apostolate and his sermons were marvelously successful.

Our Lady blesses not only those who preach her Rosary, but she highly rewards all those who get others to say it by their example. Alphonsus, King of Leon and Galicia, very much wanted all his servants to honor the Blessed Virgin by saying the Rosary. So he used to hang a large rosary on his belt and always wore it, but unfortunately never said it himself. Nevertheless his wearing (continued on page 4)

Trust in the Sacred Heart

"It seems to me that our Lord's earnest desire to have His Sacred Heart honored in a special way is directed toward renewing the effects of redemption in our souls. For the Sacred Heart is an inexhaustible fountain and its sole desire is to pour Himself out into the hearts of the humble so as to free them and prepare them to lead lives according to His good pleasure.

From this Divine Heart three streams flow endlessly. The first is the stream of Mercy for sinners; It pours into their hearts sentiments of contrition and repentance. The second is the stream of Charity which helps all in need and especially aids those seeking perfection to find the means of surmounting their difficulties. From the third stream flow Love and Light for the benefit of His friends who have attained perfection; these He wishes to unite to Himself so that they may share His knowledge and commandments and, in their individual ways, devote themselves wholly to advancing His Glory.

This Divine Heart is an abyss of all blessings, and into it the poor should submerge all their needs. It is an abyss of joy in which all of us can immerse our sorrows. It is an abyss of lowliness to counteract our foolishness, an abyss of Mercy for the wretched, an abyss of Love to meet our every need.

Therefore, you must unite yourselves to the Heart of our Lord Jesus Christ, both at the beginning of your conversion in order to obtain proper dispositions, and at its end in order to make reparation. Are you making no progress in prayer? Then you need only offer God the prayers which the Savior has poured out for us in the Sacrament of the Altar. Offer God His fervent Love in reparation for your sluggishness. In the course of every activity pray as follows: "My God, I do this or I endure that in the Heart of Your Son and according to His holy counsels. I offer it to You in reparation for anything blame-worthy or imperfect in my actions." Continue to do this in every circumstance of life. And every time that some punishment, affliction or injustice comes your way, say to yourself: "Accept this as sent to you by the Sacred Heart of Jesus Christ in order to unite yourself to Him."

But above all preserve peace of heart. This is more valuable than any treasure. In order to preserve it there is nothing more useful than renouncing your own will and substituting for it the Will of the Divine Heart. In this way His Will can carry out for us whatever contributes to His Glory, and we will be happy to be His subjects and to trust entirely in Him." (From a Letter by St. Margaret Mary Alacoque)

Quilting Bee Cause will meet Tuesday, October 28, at 9am in the church hall. Please consider joining us to make hand tied quilts for those in need. Experience not needed. Our quilts are donated to shelters who serve the homeless. Everyone is welcome!

TRIUMPH OVER EVIL: Battle of the Exorcists is a new docu-drama coming out in theaters on Thursday, October 30, that delves into the various aspects of demonic possession and exorcism, showcasing the escalation and significance as well as the role of Catholic priesthood and Mary, the Mother of God, in the battle against evil. Under the patronage and approval of the International Association of Exorcists, the film features several experts including never before seen commentary from the world-renowned Vatican exorcist Father Gabriele Amorth. TRIUMPH OVER EVIL is the only feature documentary to receive official approval from the International Association of Exorcists, a prominent Vatican-recognized association, and is an important look inside the spiritual battle faced by all God's sons and daughters and God's triumph over evil. SACRAMENTS, SCRIPTURE, & THE JEWISH FEASTS:

Understanding the Jewish Festal Cycle and its Fulfillment in Christ

It has been said that the liturgical calendar is a kind of catechism. True as this is for Catholics today, it was also true in the time of Jesus, and before. This course will explore how the seven major feasts of the Old Testament calendar prefigure and point to the Sacraments of the New Testament. Come learn how the salvific work of Jesus is richly and beautifully embedded in the Old Testament cycle of Holy Days.

Details: Thursdays, October 23 & 30 Discussion: 7:30 PM ET,

Lecture: 8:00 PM ET Scott Powell, Ph.D.

Registration is required. Visit: https://instituteofcatholicculture.org/events/acraments-scripture-the-jewish-feasts/?vgo_ee

WORDS TO LIVE BY:

"Some people are so foolish that they think they can go through life without the help of the Blessed Mother. Love the Madonna and pray the Rosary, for her Rosary is the weapon against the evils of the world today. All graces given by God pass through the Blessed Mother. You must always hold fast to the Rosary. When you do so, the Blessed Mother will wrap you in her mantle and draw you closer to the Sacred Heart of her Son." St. Padre Pio
"The Rosary, though clearly Marian in character, is at heart a Christocentric prayer. In the sobriety of its elements, it has all the depth of the Gospel message in its entirety, of which it can be said to be a compendium. With the Rosary, the Christian people sit at the school of Mary and are led to contemplate the beauty on the Face of Christ and to experience the depths of His Love. Through the Rosary the faithful receive abundant Grace, as though from the very hands of the Mother of the Redeemer." St. John Paul II
"Cling to the Rosary as the creeper clings to the tree - for without Our Lady we cannot stand. The family that prays together, stays together, and if you want peace in your heart and your home, pray the Rosary every day. Our Lady has never refused me anything I have asked through the Rosary. She is our tender Mother, eager to grant all we need if only we will come to her with trust and love." St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta
"The Blessed Virgin held a beautiful rosary in her hands at Lourdes, and from her example I learned to love it. The Rosary is a sweet chain linking us to Heaven. It is the prayer of the simple and the great alike. I have found no surer way to maintain a spirit of recollection and peace of heart than to meditate on the mysteries of the Rosary. It is Our Lady's school, where her children learn the secrets of the Gospel through her eyes and heart." St. Bernadette Soubirous

Catholic Daughters Court St. Mary Peter #1864 will meet Monday, October 27, at Sts. Peter & Paul, Mazeppa. We will gather at 6:30 p.m. for our light meal and the meeting will follow at 7:00 p.m. All women are welcome.

APPALACHIAN MISSION PROJECT STARTS OCTOBER

Dear fellow parishioners, the time to demonstrate the generosity of our hearts through supporting the Appalachian Christmas Program has again arrived. We will collect items from Sunday, October 5, to Sunday, October 26. Donations may be left in the baskets at the front of the Church or can also be taken to the parish office during open hours. A list of desired donations is posted above the baskets.

Checks should be made out to: Queen of All Saints Church, 90 Railroad St. P.O. Box 5643, Beattyville, KY 41311, St. Francis of Assisi Church, 147 Bryan St. Pikeville, KY 41501, Catholic Church of the Good Shepherd, P.O. Box 472, Campton, KY 41301, or Holy Family Catholic Church, Sr. Marge Eilerman, OSF 1439 KY-11S, Booneville, KY 41314. Please be generous to the Lord's poorest of the poor. Remember, everything must be new. Thank you for your donations and please keep all the families in your prayers. For questions, please contact Louise Gerken.

Join Pope Leo in praying the Rosary this October: In his weekly general audience on September 24, Pope Leo XIV asked all Catholics to pray the rosary every day during the month of October for peace. He reminded the faithful of the upcoming feast of Our Lady of the Rosary on October 7, and that the Catholic Church traditionally dedicates the whole month of October to praying the rosary. "I invite everyone to pray the rosary every day during the coming month—for peace -personally, with your families and in your communities," he said. Pope Leo invited Christians to share with others "the love of Jesus that illumines and lifts up humanity." Please prayerfully consider praying the rosary each day this October if you do not already practice this devotion regularly.

PRO-LIFE QUOTE:

"Life is a Gift From God. The Church's teaching on the dignity of human life is clear. "Human life" states the Catechism of the Catholic Church, "must be respected and protected absolutely from the moment of conception. From the first moment of his existence, a human being must be recognized as having the rights of a person—among which is the inviolable right of every innocent being to life." Denver Archbishop Samuel J. Aquila - January 22, 2013

Scripture Book Study: All are invited to a Scripture Book Study using the book "Wisdom From Women In Scripture". We will meet at 6PM at the Church of St. Paul on Wednesdays in October and November. Contact Mary Kingsbury 952-448-7115 if any questions and to obtain a copy of the book.

You are invited to join us! A small group for retired parishioners meets twice a month on Thursdays after Holy Mass at the Church of St. Paul. We have prayer, fellowship, and often show videos followed by discussion and end with prayer intentions. We meet for about 1-1½ hours. If interested in joining or have questions, contact Barb Boraas 507-735-5877 or Maggie Eggerichs 507-951-2316.

NEWS FROM SAINT MICHAEL AND SAINT PAUL

One day the King fell seriously ill and when he was given up for dead he found himself, in a vision, before the judgment seat of Our Lord. Many devils were there accusing him of all the sins he had committed and Our Lord as Sovereign Judge was just about to condemn him to Hell when Our Lady appeared to intercede for him. She called for a pair of scales and had his sins placed in one of the balances whereas she put the Rosary that he had always worn on the other scale, together, with all the Rosaries that had been said because of his example. It was found that the Rosaries weighed more than his sins.

Looking at him with great kindness Our Lady said: 'As a reward for this little honor that you paid me in wearing my Rosary, I have obtained a great grace for you from my Son. Your life will be spared for a few more years. See that you spend these years wisely, and do penance.' When the King regained consciousness he cried out: 'Blessed be the Rosary of the Most Holy Virgin Mary, by which I have been delivered from eternal damnation!' After he had recovered his health he spent the rest of his life in spreading devotion to the Holy Rosary and said it faithfully every day.

People who love the Blessed Virgin ought to follow the example of King Alphonsus and that of the Saints whom I have mentioned so that they too may win other souls for the Confraternity of the Holy Rosary. They will then receive great graces on earth and eternal life later on. 'They that explain me shall have life everlasting.' (Ecclesiasticus 24:31)."

Through the intercession of Our Lady of the Rosary, St. Joseph, St. Michael and St. Paul, may God bless you, our families, parishes, our Archdiocese and the whole Church!

In Christ through Mary,
Fr. Kasel
