From Father Kasel

Praised be Jesus Christ through Mary!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,

This weekend I invite you to remember the events that took place October 13, 1917 in Fatima, Portugal. Our Blessed Mother is still calling us to conversion to her Son, Jesus, through praying the Rosary, doing penance for the conversion of those practicing grave, habitual sin and going to Confession to be forgiven our sins. The Virgin Mary promised in one of her Church-approved apparitions to the three children (Lucia, Jacinta and Francisco) that her Immaculate Heart would triumph! 108 years ago (October 13, 1917) our good Lord granted a great miracle through the intercession of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. It is very good for us to remember what happened and the message that still applies to us today:

"During the night of 12-13 October it had rained throughout, soaking the ground and the pilgrims who make their way to Fátima from all directions by the thousands. By foot, by cart and even by car they came, entering the bowl of the Cova from the Fátima-Leiria road, which today still passes in front of the large square of the Basilica. From there they made their way down the gently slope to the place where a trestle had been erected over the little holm oak of the apparitions. Today on the site is the modern glass and steel Capelhina (little chapel), enclosing the first chapel built there and the statue of Our Lady of the Rosary of Fátima where the holm oak had stood.

As for the children, they made their way to the Cova amid the adulation and skepticism which had followed them since May. When they arrived they found critics who questioned their veracity and the punctuality of the Lady, who had promised to arrive at noon. It was well passed noon by the official time of the country. However, when the sun arrived at its zenith the Lady appeared as she had said she would. Lucia: 'What do you want of me?'

Our Lady: 'I want a chapel built here in my honor. I want you to continue saying the Rosary every day. The war will end soon, and the soldiers will return to their homes.'

Lucia: 'Yes. Yes. Will you tell me your name?'

Our Lady: 'I am the Lady of the Rosary.'

Lucia: 'I have many petitions from many people. Will you grant them?'

Our Lady: 'Some I shall grant, and others I must deny. People must amend their lives and ask pardon for their sins. They must not offend our Lord any more, for He is already too much offended!'

Lucia: 'And is that all you have to ask?'

Our Lady: 'There is nothing more.'

As the Lady of the Rosary rises toward the east she turns the palms of her hands toward the dark sky. While the rain had stopped, dark clouds continued to obscure the sun, which suddenly bursts through them and is seen to be a soft spinning disk of silver.

'Look at the sun!' From this point two distinct apparitions were seen, that of the phenomenon of the sun seen by the 70,000 or so spectators and that beheld by the children alone. Lucia describes the latter in her memoirs.

After our Lady had disappeared into the immense distance of the firmament, we beheld St. Joseph with the Child Jesus and Our Lady robed in white with a blue mantle, beside the sun. St. Joseph and the Child Jesus seemed to bless the world, for they traced the Sign of the Cross with their hands. When, a little later, this apparition disappeared, I saw Our Lord and Our lady; it seemed to me to that it was

We are happy that you are here! If you are new to our parishes, please call or stop at the Parish Office. We would love to meet you and answer any questions that you might have!

Our Lady of Sorrows (Dolors). Our Lord appeared to bless the world in the same manner as St. Joseph had done. This apparition also vanished, and I saw Our Lady once more, this time resembling Our Lady of Carmel. [Only Lucia would see the latter, presaging her entrance into Carmel some years later.]

This would be the last of the apparitions of Fátima for Jacinta and Francisco. However, for Lucia Our Lady would return a seventh time, in 1920, as she had promised the previous May. At that time Lucia would be praying in the Cova before leaving Fátima for a girls boarding school. The Lady would come to urge her to dedicate herself wholly to God. As the children viewed the various apparitions of Jesus, Mary and Joseph the crowd witnessed a different prodigy, the now famous miracle of the sun. Among the witnesses there were the following:

Fr. Ignacio Lorenzo (Alburitel, 11 miles away): 'I was only nine years old at this time, and I went to the local village school. At about midday we were surprised by the shouts and cries of some men and women who were passing in the street in front of (continued on page 4)

CHURCH OF SAINT MICHAEL NEWS

CHURCH OF St. Michael FAITH FORMATION:

The next Faith Formation session will be on Wednesday, October 29 (for the month of November) at 6-7:45pm the Church of St. Michael.

Topic for November:

PreK- Grade 3: Chap. 14 (Reunion with God); Grades 4-6: Chap. 24 (Mary, Mother of God, Mother & Model of the Church) and Chap. 25 (Final Reunion with God); Confirmation 1, 2, & Adults: Chap. 22 (The Quest for Unity), Chap. 23 (The Church as the Institution for Salvation), & Chap. 24 (Mary, Mother of God, Mother & Model of the Church)

Formation of a Saint

"With unceasing blows of healing chisel and careful stripping away, the Divine Artificer seeks to prepare stones to build an eternal dwelling - as our mother, the holy Catholic Church, full of tenderness, sings in the hymn of the office for the dedication of a church. And that is true.

Every soul destined for eternal glory can be considered most aptly as a stone for building an eternal edifice. The builder who seeks to put up a dwelling in the best way should first polish the stones that will be used in the construction. He does this with blows of hammer and chisel. In the same way, our Heavenly Father works on chosen souls who, from all eternity, by His supreme Wisdom and Providence, have been destined for building up the eternal dwelling.

The soul, if it wants to reign with Christ in Eternal Glory, must be polished with hammer and chisel strokes, which the Divine Artificer uses to prepare the stones, that is, the chosen souls. What are these hammer and chisel strokes? Darkness, my sister, fears, temptations, sadness of spirit and spiritual fears, which reek like a sickness, and bodily discomfort.

Give thanks to the infinite Piety of the Eternal Father Who, in this way, leads your soul to salvation. Why not glory in these benevolent conditions from the best of all fathers? Open your heart to the Celestial Doctor of souls and, full of confidence, surrender yourselves into His most holy arms: as a chosen one, He leads you to follow Jesus closely on Mount Calvary. With joy and emotion in my soul I ponder how Grace is working in you.

Do not forget that the Lord has arranged everything your soul experiences. Do not fear causing God harm or injury. It's enough that you know that in your whole life you have never offended the Lord who, on the contrary, has been honored more and more.

If this benevolent Spouse of your soul hides from you, He does so not, as you think, because He wants to take revenge on your wickedness, but because it tests your fidelity and constancy even more, and, besides, heals you of some diseases not considered as such by carnal eyes, that is to say, those diseases and faults to which not even the just person is immune. Indeed, Scripture says in the book of Proverbs: "Seven times a righteous man falls".

Believe me, if I did not see you so afflicted, I would not be as happy, because I would think that the Lord wanted to give you fewer gems. Get rid of, as temptations, the doubts that assail you. Also expel the doubts with regards to the purpose of your life: to do that is not to listen to the Divine summons, and to resist the sweet invitations of the Bridegroom. All these things do not come from a good spirit but from a bad one. These are diabolical ploys that try to separate you from perfection or, at least, hinder the journey towards it. Do not lose heart!

Whenever Jesus shows Himself, give Him thanks. If He hides, give Him thanks: all are touches of His Love. I wish you to give up your spirit with Jesus on the Cross, when He says: "It is accomplished". (From a letter by St. Pio of Pietrelcina)

Exodus: Spiritual Lessons from a People in Exile

3,500 years ago, God freed his people from slavery in Egypt and promised them a new home that flowed with milk and honey, if they remained faithful to him. Sadly, the journey, which should have taken only a few weeks, became a 40 year pilgrimage of repentance. Join Fr. David Anderson and the ICC as we seek to gain spiritual insight for our own lives from the lessons learned so long ago.

Details: Thursday, October 16 Pre-Class Discussion: 7:30 PM ET, Lecture: 8:00 PM ET Instructor: Rev. David Anderson Registration is required.

Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women Recognition Sunday

The Archdiocese of St. Paul and Minneapolis wishes to recognize the Archdiocesan council of Catholic Women's immeasurable contributions to the progress and welfare of families, parishes, communities and the poor of the world, and the organization's invaluable assistance as we seek to implement the insights of our Archdiocesan Synod; therefore be it resolved that October 12, 2025, is hereby designated as the Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women Recognition Sunday in the Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis.

WORDS TO LIVE BY:

Quotes from Our Lady of Fatima's Message to the World in 1917. The Virgin Mary of Fatima told Lucia, Jacinta and Francisco:

1. "I have come to warn the faithful to amend their lives and ask pardon for their sins. They must not continue to offend Our Lord, Who is already too much offended."
2. "If my requests are not granted, Russia will spread her errors throughout the world, provoking wars and persecutions against the Church. Many good people will be martyred, there will come another great war, and various nations will be destroyed."
3. "Wars are a punishment for the sins of mankind."
4. "More souls go to Hell because of the sins of the flesh than for any other reason."
5. "Certain fashions are being introduced that offend Our Lord very much."
6. "Many marriages are not good; they do not please Our Lord and are not of God."
7. "Say the Rosary every day to obtain peace for the world. And after each decade say the following prayer: 'O my Jesus, forgive us our sins, save us from the fires of Hell, and lead all souls to Heaven, especially those who have most need of Thy Mercy.'"
8. "Pray, pray a great deal, and make sacrifices for sinners, for many souls go to Hell because they have no one to make sacrifices and pray for them."
9. "God wishes to establish in the world devotion to my Immaculate Heart. If people do what I tell you, many souls will be saved and there will be peace."
10. "I promise to help at the hour of death with the Graces needed for salvation those who, on the first Saturday of five consecutive months, go to Confession, receive Holy Communion, say five decades of the Rosary and keep me company for fifteen minutes while meditating on the mysteries, with the intention of making reparation to my Immaculate Heart."
11. "Sacrifice yourselves for sinners and say many times, especially when you make a sacrifice, 'O Jesus, this is for love of Thee, for the conversion of sinners, and in reparation for the sins committed against the Immaculate Heart of Mary.'"
12. "Tell everybody that God gives His Graces through the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Tell them to ask Graces from her, and that the Heart of Jesus wishes to be venerated together with the Immaculate Heart of Mary, for the Lord has confided the peace of the world to her... In the end my Immaculate Heart will triumph, Russia will be converted and there will be peace."

NEWS FROM SAINT MICHAEL AND SAINT PAUL

(from page 1) the school. The teacher, a good, pious woman, though nervous and impressionable, was the first to run into the road, with the children after her. Outside, the people were shouting and weeping and pointing to the sun, ignoring the agitated questions of the schoolmistress. It was the great Miracle, which one could see quite distinctly from the top of the hill where my village was situated - the Miracle of the sun, accompanied by all its extraordinary phenomena. I feel incapable of describing what I saw and felt. I looked fixedly at the sun, which seemed pale and did not hurt the eyes. Looking like a ball of snow revolving on itself, it suddenly seemed to come down in a zigzag, menacing the earth. Terrified, I ran and hid myself among the people, who were weeping and expecting the end of the world at any moment. Near us was an unbeliever who had spent the morning mocking at the simpletons who had gone off to Fátima just to see an ordinary girl. He now seemed to be paralyzed, his eyes fixed on the sun. Afterwards he trembled from head to foot and lifting up his arms fell on his knees in the mud, crying out to our Lady. Meanwhile the people continued to cry out and to weep, asking God to pardon their sins. We all ran to the two chapels in the village, which were soon filled to overflowing. During those long moments of the solar prodigy, objects around us turned all the colors of the rainbow. We saw ourselves blue, yellow, red, etc. All these strange phenomena increased the fears of the people. After about ten minutes the sun, now dull and pallid, returned to its place. When the people realized that the danger was over, there was an explosion of joy, and everyone joined in thanksgiving and praise to our Lady." (taken from www.ewtn.com) Through the intercession of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, the Pure Heart of St. Joseph, St. Paul and St. Michael, may all people come to know and love the Divine Mercy of our good Lord!
