Welcome to the Churches of

From Father Kasel

Praised be Jesus Christ through Mary!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,

The month of October is dedicated to growing in devotion to the Holy Rosary. The Holy Rosary may be the most popular devotion for Catholics. However, there are still many Catholics who either do not know how to pray the Holy Rosary or pray it infrequently.

In 1917 our Blessed Mother Mary appeared to the three shepherd children in Fatima, Portugal. During her apparitions she asked that the Holy Rosary be prayed for peace. Do you know how to pray the Holy Rosary? If not, I encourage you to learn today! Do you pray the Holy Rosary rarely or not at all? If so, I encourage you to begin praying the Holy Rosary every day!

It has long been held in the Church that Our Blessed Mother appeared to St. Dominic in the year 1208 and, later, around the year 1460, our Lord Jesus spoke to Blessed Alan de la Roche to urge preaching of the prayer devotion of the Holy Rosary. Monks of that era were already accustomed to daily praying from memory all 150 Psalms as found in the Book of Psalms. Our Blessed Mother urged promoting the Holy Rosary so that this prayer would become a daily habit offered by all the faithful, not just those in the religious life.

The Virgin Mary offers Promises to those who pray the Holy Rosary daily.

Our Blessed Mother made 15 promises to those who recite it daily. These are big promises and the Graces we can receive through a prayerful recitation of the Holy Rosary can help any Catholic live a holy life. Here are the promises of our Blessed Mother:

1. To all those who shall pray my Rosary devoutly, I promise my special protection and great graces.
2. Those who shall persevere in the recitation of my Rosary will receive signal Graces.
3. The Rosary will be a very powerful armor against Hell; it will destroy vice, deliver from sin, and dispel heresy.
4. The Rosary will make virtue and good works flourish, and will obtain for souls the most abundant Divine Mercies. It will draw the hearts of men from the love of the world and its vanities, and will lift them to the desire of eternal things. Oh, that souls would sanctify themselves by this means.
5. Those who trust themselves to me through the Rosary will not perish.
6. Whoever recites my Rosary devoutly, reflecting on the mysteries, shall never be overwhelmed by misfortune. He will not experience the anger of God nor will he perish by an unprovided death. The sinner will be converted; the just will persevere in Grace and merit eternal life.
7. Those truly devoted to my Rosary shall not die without the Sacraments of the Church.
8. Those who are faithful to recite my Rosary shall have during their life and at their death the Light of God and the plenitude of His Graces and will share in the merits of the blessed.
9. I will deliver promptly from Purgatory souls devoted to my Rosary.
10. True children of my Rosary will enjoy great glory in Heaven.
11. What you shall ask through my Rosary you shall obtain.
12. To those who propagate my Rosary I promise aid in all their necessities.
13. I have obtained from my Son that all the members of the Rosary

We are happy that you are here! If you are new to our parishes, please call or stop at the Parish Office. We would love to meet you and answer any questions that you might have!

14. Those who recite my Rosary faithfully are my beloved children, the brothers and sisters of Jesus Christ.

15. Devotion to my Rosary is a special sign of predestination. Regarding the Holy Rosary, Venerable Servant of God Archbishop Fulton Sheen said, "The Rosary is the book of the blind, where souls see and there enact the greatest drama of love the world has ever known; it is the book of the simple, which initiates them into mysteries and knowledge more satisfying than the education of other men; it is the book of the aged, whose eyes close upon the shadow of this world, and open on the substance of the next. The power of the Rosary is beyond description."

Finally, if the promises of our Blessed Mother were not enough to demonstrate the goodness of praying the Rosary, (continued on page 4)

SACRAMENTS, SCRIPTURE, & THE JEWISH FEASTS:

Understanding the Jewish Festival Cycle and its Fulfillment in Christ

It has been said that the liturgical calendar is a kind of catechism. True as this is for Catholics today, it was also true in the time of Jesus, and before. This course will explore how the seven major feasts of the Old Testament calendar prefigure and point to the Sacraments of the New Testament. Come learn how the salvific work of Jesus is richly and beautifully embedded in the Old Testament cycle of Holy Days.

TRIUMPH OVER EVIL: Battle of the Exorcists is a new docu-drama coming out in theaters on Thursday, October 30, that delves into the various aspects of demonic possession and exorcism, showcasing the escalation and significance as well as the role of Catholic priesthood and Mary, the Mother of God, in the battle against evil. Under the patronage and approval of the International Association of Exorcists, the film features several experts including never before seen commentary from the world-renowned Vatican exorcist Father Gabriele Amorth.

TRIUMPH OVER EVIL is the only feature documentary to receive official approval from the International Association of Exorcists, a prominent Vatican-recognized association, and is an important look inside the spiritual battle faced by all God's sons and daughters and God's triumph over evil. Join Pope Leo in praying the Rosary this October: In his weekly general audience on September 24, Pope Leo XIV asked all Catholics to pray the rosary every day during the month of October for peace. He reminded the faithful of the upcoming feast of Our Lady of the Rosary on October 7, and that the Catholic Church traditionally dedicates the whole month of October to praying the rosary. "I invite everyone to pray the rosary every day during the coming month—for peace -personally, with your families and in your communities," he said. Pope Leo invited Christians to share with others "the love of Jesus that illumines and lifts up humanity." Please prayerfully consider praying the rosary each day this October if you do not already practice this devotion regularly.

Consecration to your Guardian Angel: Would you like to learn more about the Holy Angels? Did you know the Catholic Church promotes Consecration to your Guardian Angel through a Catholic Apostolate called Opus Angelorum? If you are interested in learning more, please contact Fr. Be Not Afraid!

"Peter came to Rome! What else but obedience to the inspiration received from the Lord could have guided him and brought him to this city, the heart of the Empire? Perhaps the fisherman of Galilee did not want to come here. Perhaps he would have preferred to stay there, on the shores of Lake of Genesareth, with his boat and his nets. Yet guided by the Lord, obedient to His inspiration, he came here!

According to an ancient tradition, Peter tried to leave Rome during Nero's persecution. However, the Lord intervened and came to meet him. Peter spoke to Him and asked, "Quo vadis, Domine?" - "Where are You going, Lord?" And the Lord answered him at once: "I am going to Rome to be crucified again." Peter went back to Rome and stayed here until his crucifixion.

Our time calls us, urges us, obliges us, to gaze on the Lord and to immerse ourselves in humble and devout meditation on the mystery of the supreme power of Christ Himself. He who was born of the Virgin Mary, the carpenter's Son (as He was thought to be), the Son of the living God (as confessed by Peter), came to make us all "a kingdom of priests".

The Second Vatican Council has reminded us of the mystery of this power and of the fact that Christ's mission as Priest, Prophet-Teacher and King continues in the Church. Everyone, the whole People of God, shares in this threefold mission. Perhaps in the past the tiara, that triple crown, was placed on the Pope's head in order to signify by that symbol the Lord's plan for His Church, namely that all the hierarchical order of Christ's Church, all "sacred power" exercised in the Church, is nothing other than service, service with a single purpose: to ensure that the whole People of God shares in this threefold mission of Christ and always remains under the power of the Lord; a power that has its source not in the powers of this world, but instead in the mystery of the Cross and the Resurrection.

The absolute, and yet sweet and gentle, power of the Lord responds to the whole depths of the human person, to his loftiest aspirations of intellect, will and heart. It does not speak the language of force, but expresses itself in Charity and Truth.

The new Successor of Peter in the See of Rome today makes a fervent, humble and trusting prayer: Christ, make me become and remain the servant of your unique power, the servant of your sweet power, the servant of your power that knows no dusk. Make me a servant: indeed, the servant of your servants.

Brothers and sisters, do not be afraid to welcome Christ and accept His power. Help the Pope and all those who wish to serve Christ and with Christ's power to serve the human person and the whole of mankind. Do not be afraid. Open, I say open wide the doors for Christ. To His saving power open the boundaries of states, economic and political systems, the vast fields of culture, civilization and development. Do not be afraid. Christ knows "that which is in man". He alone knows it. So often today, man does not know that which is in him, in the depths of his mind and heart. So often he is uncertain about the meaning of his life on this earth. He is assailed by doubt, a doubt which turns into despair. We ask you, therefore, we beg you with humility and with trust, let Christ speak to man. He alone has Words of Life, yes, of Life Eternal." (From the Homily of Pope St. John Paul II for the Inauguration of his Pontificate)

NEWS FROM SAINT MICHAEL AND SAINT PAUL

(from page 1) here are seven reasons from St. Louis de Montfort on why to pray the Rosary, as found in his book 'The Secret of the Rosary':

- 1) It gradually gives us a perfect knowledge of Jesus Christ.
- 2) It purifies our souls, washing away sin.
- 3) It gives us victory over all our enemies.
- 4) It makes it easy for us to practice virtue.
- 5) It sets us on fire with love of Our Blessed Lord.
- 6) It enriches us with Graces and merits.
- 7) It supplies us with what is needed to pay all our debts to God and to our fellow men, and finally, it obtains all kinds of Graces for us from Almighty God.

Through the intercession of Our Lady of the Rosary, St. Joseph, St. Michael and St. Paul, may God bless you, our families, parishes, our Archdiocese and the whole Church!

In Christ through Mary,
Fr. Kasel

Dear Parishioners, According to the Enchiridion of Indulgences of the Catholic Church a Plenary Indulgence is available each day from November 1-8 for Catholics who devoutly visit and pray for the faithful departed in any cemetery. The usual conditions for a Plenary Indulgence apply:

A plenary indulgence can be gained only once a day. In order to obtain it, the faithful must, in addition to being in the State of Grace:

- have made a Sacramental Confession of their sins (20 days before or after the pious work of mercy or prayerful action);
- receive the Holy Eucharist (20 days before or after the pious work of mercy or prayerful action);
- pray for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff (Our Father and Hail Mary are suggested)

Suggested prayer for a visit to a cemetery: 'Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord; and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen. May all the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace. Amen.'
