From Father Kasel

Praised be Jesus Christ through Mary!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,

Our Archdiocesan Synod was held yesterday, June 7. Let us ask the Holy Spirit to make the efforts of our Synod fruitful in the eyes of Heavenly Father! O Holy Spirit, help us to be saints and give us the strength to eagerly share the joy of the Gospel with others!

The month of June is dedicated to increased devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Let us ask the Virgin Mary and St. Joseph to teach us to love and console the Sacred Heart of Jesus!

This Sunday we celebrate Solemnity of Pentecost! May the Holy Spirit set our heart aflame with His Love! This week I share with you a meditation on the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary. I encourage you to reflect over this message a few times this week:

“The Holy Spirit and Mary - together with the Blessed Virgin we await the coming of the Holy Spirit: While they awaited the coming of the promised Holy Spirit all with one accord devoted themselves to prayer, together with Mary, the Mother of Jesus. (Acts 1:14) All are in the same place, in the Cenacle, inspired by the same Love and the same Hope. In their midst is the Mother of God. In this scene Tradition sees mirrored Mary’s Motherhood for the whole Church. The era of the Church began with the ‘coming’, that is to say, with the descent of the Holy Spirit on the Apostles gathered in the Upper Room in Jerusalem, together with Mary, the Lord’s Mother. (St. John Paul II, Dominum et Vivificantem, 18 May 1986, 25) Our Lady lives what is like a second Advent, an expectation which prepares the Holy Spirit’s full communication of His gifts to the newborn Church. This Advent is at once very like and very different from the first, the one which prepared for the birth of Jesus. Very similar, because in both we find prayer, recollection, Faith in the promise and a burning desire that the promise be fulfilled. Mary, bearing Jesus in her womb, remained in the silence of her contemplation. Now our Lady lives deeply united to her glorified Son. (cf. M.D. Philippe, The Mystery of Mary, Madrid)

This second waiting is very different from the first. In the first Advent, the Virgin is the only one to live the promise fulfilled in her womb. Here she waits accompanied by the Apostles and the holy women. This is a shared expectation, that of the Church which is about to manifest itself publicly around our Lady. Mary, who conceived Christ through the working of the Holy Spirit, the Love of the living God, presides over the birth of the Church on the day of Pentecost, when the Holy Spirit Himself descends upon the disciples and pours out life in unity and in charity upon the Mystical Body of Christians. (St. Paul VI, Address, 25 October 1969)

The resolution of our prayer... is to await the coming of the Paraclete, closely united to our Mother by her prayers imploring the gift of the Spirit, Who had already overshadowed her in the Annunciation (Second Vatican Council, Lumen Gentium, 59), changing her into the new Tabernacle of God. She, who at the start of the Redemption gave us her Son, now by her most powerful intercession obtained for the newborn Church the prodigious Pentecostal outpouring of the Spirit of the Divine Redeemer Who had already been given on the Cross. (Venerable Pius XII, Mystici Corporis, 29 June 1943) It was St. Luke who related this fact, the evangelist who gave us the longest account of Jesus’ childhood. It is as if he wanted us to understand that just as Mary had a major role in the Incarnation of the Word, she was intimately involved in the beginning of the Church, Christ’s Body. (St. J. Escriva, Christ Is Passing By, 141) Mary is our path to a better disposition for greater friendship with the Paraclete and greater docility to His inspirations. The Apostles understood this: that is why we see them beside her in the Cenacle. Let us examine the quality of our habitual relationship with Mary, and make some practical resolution today. Let us take greater care when we recite the Holy Rosary, contemplating its mysteries; let us offer her some little sacrifice, different from those we are accustomed to make during the week. Let us show greater affection when we greet her, through her images which we see in the street, or in our room.

Welcome to the Churches of

The Holy Spirit in Mary’s life: The Blessed Virgin received the Holy Spirit at Pentecost with a unique fullness. This was so because her heart was the purest, the freest, the heart which most incomparably loved the Most Blessed Trinity. The Paraclete came down upon the soul of the Blessed Virgin and filled it in a new way. He is the sweet Guest of Mary’s soul. Our Lord had promised to him who loved God: We will come to him and make Our home with him. (John 14:23) This promise is fulfilled above all in Our Lady.

The next Holy Hour and Social for Men: Sunday, June 8, at 6:30pm at the Church of St. Michael, Pine Island. Fr. Kasel will give a talk on: The Devotion of Consoling the Heart of Jesus. All men are invited!

Corpus Christi Sunday will be June 22!

Procession of the Holy Eucharist: We will have a procession of the Holy Eucharist after the Sunday, June 22, at 8:45am Holy Mass at the Church of St. Paul, Zumbrota and after the Sunday, 10:30am Holy Mass at the Church of St. Michael, Pine Island. Let us join together in public adoration and witness of our Lord’s True Presence in the Holy Eucharist!

GRADUATION HOLY MASS & RECEPTION

June 8, 2025 at 10:30am

Please join me in congratulating the seniors on their achievement and please remember to keep them in prayers as they move to new challenges and learning experiences. May God bless you! Fr. Kasel

Congratulations to our Seniors!

A reception will follow downstairs in the community room after the 10:30am Holy Mass. Come to celebrate with our seniors!

Archdiocesan Passport Adventure: We are 175 years strong! Catholics around the world are marking 2025 as a Year of Jubilee, while at the same time we as an Archdiocese celebrate 175 years since our founding on July 19, 1850.

Archbishop Hebda invites you to become an Archdiocesan Jubilee Pilgrim:

- Go to <https://www.archspm.org/passport/> for more information and to download and print your passport.
- From now through Sunday, October 12, try to visit seven parishes other than your own, much as Saint Philip Neri led the faithful of his day to seven churches in Rome. You could pray for one of the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit at each church.
- Among the seven churches, try to visit our two Jubilee co-cathedral churches: the Cathedral of Saint Paul and the Basilica of Saint Mary. Look for the Jubilee Cross in each of them.
- Perhaps visit our oldest Church of Saint Peter in Mendota and one of our newest churches. Saint Katherine Drexel in Ramsey is just about to be consecrated and St. Elizabeth Ann Seton in Hastings has just been renovated.
- Try to participate in a Mass that might expand your personal experience of liturgy—perhaps with our Maronite or Byzantine brethren, one of our immigrant communities, one of our Traditional Latin Mass communities, the Catholic deaf community, or with the University students at Saint Lawrence in Dinkytown.
- Join us Sunday, October 12, for one of the morning Masses at the Cathedral and for an Ice Cream Social.

Institute of Catholic Culture Lecture Series:

CATHOLICISM AND THE SLAVE TRADE: The True Story
Have you ever wondered how the Church navigated one of history's darkest eras? This lecture will examine the Church's response to enslavement during the era of the slave trade. It will examine this complex and, at times, contradictory history, by highlighting key figures in the debates, especially the Spanish Dominican Bartolomé de Las Casas, and the papal documents that were promulgated in response. The session will conclude with a discussion of Pope Gregory XVI's In Supremo Apostolatus (1839), offering a historical epilogue that emphasizes the development of the Church's commitment to justice and human dignity.

Details: Thursday, June 12, 2025

Pre-Class Discussion: 7:30pm EST Lecture: 8:00pm EST

Instructor: Rev. David J. Endres, Ph.D.

Registration is required. Visit: <https://instituteofcatholicculture.org/events/slave-trade/>

PRO-LIFE QUOTE:

“If the bringing of children into the world is today an economic burden, it is because the social system is inadequate; and not because God’s law is wrong. Therefore the State should remove the causes of that burden. The human must not be limited and controlled to fit the economic, but the economic must be expanded to fit the human.” —
Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of Your faithful and enkindle in them the Fire of Your Love.

V. Send forth Your Spirit and they shall be created.

R. And You shall renew the face of the earth.

Let us pray: O God, who by the Light of the Holy Spirit, did instruct the hearts of the faithful, grant us in the same Spirit to be truly wise and ever to rejoice in His consolation. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Archdiocesan Marriage Day on Saturday, June 21, at 10am at the Cathedral of Saint Paul, St. Paul, MN. Please join in celebrating the beautiful mystery of the mutual self-gift between a man and woman in the Sacrament of Matrimony. Bishop Michael Izen will be celebrating this Holy Mass. Those celebrating their silver and golden anniversaries in 2025 will be honored in a special way. Families and friends are invited to share in this special Holy Mass and reception.

St. Paul CCW Updates

At the May 6 CCW meeting new officers were elected. Congratulations to new CCW Officers Sue Hinrichs and Maggie Eggerichs as co-presidents; and Donna Huneke as the secretary/treasurer for CCW. Thank you to Sue, Maggie, and Donna for serving! Outgoing officers are Annette Fritz and Mary Kingsbury - thank you for serving.

St. Paul CCW Salad Lunch update: The CCW has decided to NOT host the CCW salad lunch this year. It has been held in August in past years. The number of ladies able to help has changed, and therefore, we are taking a break this year. We host other events throughout the year to which we will dedicate our time and energy. If you have any questions, please contact our CCW officers: Sue Hinrichs, Maggie Eggerichs, or Donna Huneke.

The Blessing of the Holy Spirit Found in Repentance

Take care that you do not underrate the efficacy of repentance. Would you know the power of repentance? Would you understand this strong weapon of salvation and the might of confession? By confession Hezekiah routed a hundred and eighty-five thousand of the enemy (2 Kgs 19). That was important, but it was little compared to what shall be told. The same king's repentance won the repeal of the sentence God had passed on him... Now if even Hezekiah could revoke God's decree, shall not Jesus grant the remission of sins? Turn and lament, shut your door, and beg for pardon, that God may remove from you the scorching flames. For confession has the power to quench even fire; it can tame even lions...

I shall go to a different example of repentance. What think you of Nebuchadnezzar? Have you not heard from Scripture that he was bloodthirsty, fierce, with the disposition of a lion?... What punishment did he not deserve for slaying kings, for burning holy objects, for reducing people to captivity, for putting sacred vessels in the temples of idols? Did he not deserve ten thousand deaths? You have seen the enormity of his crimes... When therefore he acknowledged the Most High, and uttered words of thanksgiving to God, and repented of his past wickedness, and recognized his own weakness, in that hour God restored to him his royal dignity (cf. Dn 4). If God granted pardon and a kingdom to Nebuchadnezzar after such terrible crimes, when he had made confession, will He not grant you the remission of your sins if you repent, and the Kingdom of Heaven if you live worthily? God is merciful and quick to forgiveness, but slow to vengeance. Therefore, let no man despair of salvation. Peter, the chief and foremost of the Apostles, denied the Lord; but, moved to repentance, he wept bitterly. His weeping revealed his heartfelt repentance, and for that reason not only did he receive pardon for his denial, but retained his apostolic prerogative.

Therefore, brethren, having before you many examples of sinners who repented and were saved, be you also earnest in confessing to the Lord, that you may receive pardon for past sins, be made worthy of the Heavenly Gift, and inherit the Kingdom of Heaven with all the Saints. St. Cyril of Jerusalem (St. Cyril [+ 386], Bishop of Jerusalem, was best known for his unflinching orthodoxy in teaching the Catholic Faith.)

FORMED: Grow in faith this summer by journeying with the Saints!

Formed is celebrating heavenly friends this summer with a new initiative called Summer with the Saints. This free journey with the saints offers two tracks, one geared toward families with young children and one geared toward adults. Both tracks provide weekly opportunities to celebrate saints' feast days with movies and shows on Formed, and the family track includes related activities that kids of all ages will enjoy. Individuals and families can keep it simple by participating in Summer with the Saints, where they will be inspired by stories of holy men and women who loved God no matter the season. The journey begins June 1, and continues through the end of August! All you holy saints of God, pray for us!

WORDS TO LIVE BY:

"Come, Holy Spirit. Spirit of Truth, You are the reward of the Saints, the comforter of souls, Light in the darkness, riches to the poor, treasure to lovers, food for the hungry, comfort to those who are wandering; to sum up, You are the One in whom all treasures are contained. Come! As you descended upon Mary that the Word might become flesh, work in us through Grace as You worked in her through nature and Grace. Come! Food of every chaste thought, fountain of all mercy, sum of all purity. Come! Consume in us whatever prevents us from being consumed in You." St. Mary Magdalene de Pazzi

"Virtues are formed by prayer. Prayer preserves temperance. Prayer suppresses anger. Prayer prevents emotions of pride and envy. Prayer draws into the soul the Holy Spirit, and raises man to Heaven." St. Ephraem

"If we approach with Faith, we too will see Jesus... for the Eucharistic table takes the place of the crib. Here the Body of the Lord is present, wrapped not in swaddling clothes but in the rays of the Holy Spirit." St. John Chrysostom

"Enrich your soul in the great goodness of God: The Father is your table, the Son is your food, and the Holy Spirit waits on you and then makes His dwelling in you." St. Catherine of Siena

"He pours Light into our minds, arouses our desire and gives us strength... As the soul is the life of the body, so the Holy Spirit is the Life of our souls." St. Peter Damian

NEWS FROM SAINT MICHAEL AND SAINT PAUL

[from page 1] of God, 292), had been prepared with immense care by the Holy Spirit to be the living tabernacle of the Son of God. Therefore the Angel greets her: Hail, Full of Grace. (Luke 1:28) And, already possessed by the Holy Spirit and filled with His grace, she received yet another new and singular fullness of that Grace: The Holy Spirit will come upon you and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. (Luke 1:35) Redeemed, in a more exalted fashion, by reason of the merits of her Son and united to Him by a close and indissoluble tie, she is endowed with the high office and dignity of the Mother of the Son of God, and therefore she is also the beloved Daughter of the Father and the Temple of the Holy Spirit. Because of this gift of sublime Grace, she far surpasses all creatures, both in Heaven and on earth. (Second Vatican Council, Lumen Gentium, 53)

During her life our Lady grew continually in Love for God the Father, God the Son (her Son Jesus) and God the Holy Spirit. She corresponded to all the inspirations and motions of the Paraclete, and each time she was docile to those inspirations she received new Graces. She never offered the least resistance, never denied God anything. Her growth in human and Supernatural Virtues was continuous, under a special influence of Grace.

For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. (Rom. 8:14) No creature allowed itself to be led and guided by the Holy Spirit as did our holy Mother Mary. None lived Divine Filiation as she did.

The Holy Spirit, Who had lived in Mary since the mystery of her Immaculate Conception, came on the day of Pentecost to dwell in her in a new way. All the promises Jesus had made about the Paraclete are fully accomplished in the soul of the Blessed Virgin: He will bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you. (John 14:26) He will guide you into all the Truth. (John 16:13)

The Blessed Virgin is the creature God loves most. As for us, in spite of so many offences He receives us as the father receives the prod—→

Missionary Co-operation Collection June 21-22:

Our parishes will host a guest priest the weekend of June 21-22. We are invited to take part in a unique opportunity to participate in the Church's worldwide mission through the Missionary Appeal Program of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, the Church's central source of mission support.

This year, we welcome Rev. Christian Bustonera, a missionary priest from the Religious Institute of the Alagad ni Maria (Disciples of Mary) in the Philippines. He will enlighten us with his firsthand experiences in serving the youth and how their community ministers to poor mission parishes in remote, rural areas in the Philippines. Through his testimony, we would like to invite you to take part in his mission apostolate through your prayers and donations. Please be as generous as your means allow in responding to the Lord's call to support the spread of His love and hope to all people throughout the world.

igal son, though we are sinners He loves us with an infinite Love and fills us with gifts as often as we correspond with His Graces. If He is so generous with those who have offended Him, what won't He do to honor His immaculate Mother, the most Holy Virgin, faithful always? If the love of God can achieve such great results, when the response from our human heart - which is frequently a traitor - is so small, how much more will it accomplish in the heart of Mary, who never resisted in the slightest the Will of God! (St. J. Escriva, Christ Is Passing By, 178)

Holy Mary, Mother of the Church, pray for us and help us to prepare, for the coming of the Paraclete into our souls." (From In Conversation with God, by Francis Fernandez)

Through the intercession of Mary, Mother of the Church, St. Joseph, St. Michael and St. Paul, may God grant us the Grace to joyfully live and proclaim the Gospel in union with the Holy Spirit!
