From Father Kasel

Praised be Jesus Christ through Mary!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,

Alleluia! He is Risen! Alleluia! With our parish staff, I wish all of you a very Blessed and Happy Easter! Our Easter celebration of the Resurrection of Jesus from the dead is the greatest of all celebrations and the greatest of all triumphs our Lord Jesus won for us!

I want to remind you that Easter Sunday is the first day of the Easter Octave (or the eight days of Easter). The Easter Octave will conclude the evening of next Sunday - Divine Mercy Sunday.

I encourage all to pray along with the Divine Mercy Novena that began this past Good Friday and concludes next Saturday. Also, I encourage all to attend our Divine Mercy Sunday (April 27) celebration that will be at the Church of St. Michael in Pine Island from 1 - 4pm. Some parishioners will give their personal Divine Mercy witness from 1-2pm. Adoration will begin at 2pm. Confession, the Chaplet of Divine Mercy (sung and recited) and the Holy Rosary will be offered during the time of Adoration.

This Easter Sunday I want to share with you some quotes from sermons given by the Early Fathers of the Church - they are instructive and inspiring!

"O Death, where is your sting? O Hell, where is your victory? Christ is risen, and you are overthrown. Christ is risen, and the demons are fallen. Christ is risen, and the angels rejoice. Christ is risen, and life reigns. Christ is risen, and not one dead remains in the grave. For Christ, being risen from the dead, is become the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep." St. John Chrysostom - Paschal Sermon

"Yesterday I was crucified with Him; today I am glorified with Him; yesterday I died with Him; today I am quickened with Him; yesterday I was buried with Him; today I rise with Him. But let us offer to Him Who suffered and rose again for us— you will think perhaps that I am going to say gold, or silver, or woven work or transparent and costly stones, the mere passing material of earth, that remains here below, and is for the most part always possessed by bad men, slaves of the world and of the Prince of the world. Let us offer ourselves, the possession most precious to God, and most fitting; let us give back to the Image what is made after the Image. Let us recognize our Dignity; let us honor our Archetype; let us know the power of the Mystery, and for what Christ died." St. Gregory the Theologian - Homily on Pascha

"...Now since you are celebrating the holy Pascha, you should know, brethren, what the Pascha is. Pascha means the crossing-over, and so the Festival is called by this name. For it was on this day that the Children of Israel crossed over out of Egypt, and the Son of God crossed over from this world to His Father. What gain is it to celebrate unless you imitate Him Whom you worship; that is, unless you cross over from Egypt, that is, from the darkness of evil-doing to the light of virtue, from the love of this world to the love of your heavenly home?" St. Ambrose of Milan - "The Sunday of the Resurrection"

"Let God's people then recognize that they are a new creation in Christ, and with all vigilance understand by Whom they have been adopted and Whom they have adopted. Let not the things, which have been made new, return to their ancient instability; and let not him who has 'put his hand to the plough' forsake his work, but rather attend to that which he sows than look back to that which he has left behind. Let no one fall back into that from which he has risen, but, even though from bodily weakness he still languishes under certain maladies, let him urgently desire to be healed and raised up. For this is the path of health through imitation of the Resurrection begun in Christ, whereby, notwithstanding the many accidents and falls to which in this slippery life the traveler is liable, his feet may be guided from the quagmire on to solid ground, for, as it is written, 'the steps of a man are directed by the Lord, and He will delight in his way. When the just man falls he shall not be) overthrown, because the Lord will stretch out His hand.'" St. Leo the Great - "On the Lord's Resurrection"

"The death of the Lord our God should not be a cause of shame for us; rather, it should be our greatest hope, our greatest glory. In taking upon Himself the death that He found in us, He has most faithfully promised to give us life in Him, such as we cannot have of ourselves." St. Augustine

Through the intercession of Mary, the Queen of Heaven, St. Joseph, St. Michael and St. Paul, may the Risen Lord Jesus bless us with a share in His Victory over sin, death and the enemy of our salvation! Happy Easter!

In Christ through Mary,

Fr. Kasel

ABIDING IN GOD—A Study of the Epistles of St. John
Three rich, yet often overlooked, New Testament books are I, II, and III John. These “hidden” gems reveal fascinating insights about life in the early Church and impart apostolic wisdom on topics such as prayer, holiness, the sacraments, and the nature of love. Above all, they call us to place Christ at the center of our lives. Pre-Class Discussion: 7:30pm EST Lecture: 8:00pm EST Instructor: Scott Powell, Ph.D. Registration is required. WORDS TO LIVE BY:

“O loving Wisdom of our God! When all was sin and shame, a second Adam to the fight and to the rescue came. O wisest Love! That flesh and blood, which did in Adam fail, should strive afresh against the foe, should strive and should prevail. And that a higher gift than Grace should flesh and blood refine: God’s presence and His very self, essence All-Divine.” St. John Henry Cardinal Newman

“Christ’s Resurrection is the strength, the secret of Christianity. It is not a question of mythology or of mere symbolism, but of a concrete event. It is confirmed by sure and convincing proofs. The acceptance of this Truth, although the fruit of the Holy Spirit’s Grace, rests at the same time on a solid historical base. On the threshold of the third millennium, the new effort of evangelization can begin only from a renewed experience of this Mystery, accepted in Faith and witnessed to in life.” St. John Paul II

“On this night of Resurrection everything begins anew; creation regains its authentic meaning in the plan of Salvation. It is like a new beginning of history and of the cosmos, because Christ is Risen, ‘the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep’ (1 Cor 15:20). Christ, the ‘last Adam,’ has become ‘a life-giving Spirit’ (1 Cor 15:45).” St. John Paul II

“In the resurrection, Christ reveals the power of God’s love to conquer sin and death.” St. Thomas Aquinas

“Easter is not just a day to celebrate; it is a season to live with renewed Faith and Hope.” St. John Chrysostom

“The resurrection of Jesus Christ is the foundation of our Christian faith and the source of our eternal Hope.” St. Leo the Great

“Easter is a season of profound transformation, a time when the old gives way to the new and the broken is made whole. It is a reminder that God’s power is made perfect in weakness, and that His Grace is sufficient for all our needs.” St. Faustina Kowalska

Catholic Services Appeal for 2025:

Giving is Faith in Action!

It is such a great reminder of what the Lord has done and calls us to do. Your continued generosity to the Catholic Services Appeal and your faith in our ministries are proof that by offering the Lord what we can, He will provide what we need. The way the Lord gave of Himself for us is a great reminder that we are united as one Church that when we come together and support our ministries we can do so much good. Each of us has benefited from our ministries.

The Victory of the Lamb:

“There was much proclaimed by the prophets about the mystery of the Passover: that mystery is Christ, and to Him be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

For the sake of suffering humanity He came down from Heaven to earth, clothed Himself in that humanity in the Virgin’s womb, and was born a man. Having then a body capable of suffering, He took the pain of fallen man upon Himself; He triumphed over the diseases of soul and body that were its cause, and by His Spirit, which was incapable of dying, He dealt man’s destroyer, death, a fatal blow.

He was led forth like a lamb; He was slaughtered like a sheep. He ransomed us from our servitude to the world, as He had ransomed Israel from the land of Egypt; He freed us from our slavery to the devil, as He had freed Israel from the hand of Pharaoh. He sealed our souls with His own Spirit, and the members of our body with His own Blood. He is the One who covered death with shame and cast the devil into mourning, as Moses cast Pharaoh into mourning. He is the One who smote sin and robbed iniquity of offspring. He is the One who brought us out of slavery into Freedom, out of darkness into Light, out of death into Life, out of tyranny into an Eternal Kingdom; Who made us a new priesthood, a people chosen to be His own forever. He is the Passover that is our Salvation.

It is He who endured every kind of suffering in all those who foreshadowed Him. In Abel He was slain, in Isaac bound, in Jacob exiled, in Joseph sold, in Moses exposed to die. He was sacrificed in the Passover lamb, persecuted in David, dishonored in the prophets.

It is He who was made man of the Virgin, He who was hung on the Tree; it is He who was buried in the earth, raised from the dead, and taken up to the heights of Heaven. He is the mute lamb, the slain lamb, the lamb born of Mary, the fair ewe. He was seized from the flock, dragged off to be slaughtered, sacrificed in the evening, and buried at night. On the Tree no bone of His was broken; in the earth His body knew no decay. He is the One who rose from the dead, and who raised man from the depths of the tomb.” (From an Easter sermon by St. Melito of Sardis, Bishop)

NEWS FROM SAINT MICHAEL AND SAINT PAUL

Renewal of Baptismal Promises

V. Do you reject Satan? R. I do.
 V. And all his works? R. I do.
 V. And all his empty promises? R. I do.
 V. Do you believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of Heaven and earth? R. I do.
 V. Do you believe in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was born of the Virgin Mary, was crucified, died, and was buried, rose from the dead, and is now seated at the right hand of the Father? R. I do.
 V. Do you believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting? R. I do.
 V. God, the all-powerful Father of our Lord Jesus Christ has given us a new birth by water and the Holy Spirit, and forgiven all our sins. May He also keep us faithful to our Lord Jesus Christ for ever and ever. R. Amen.

PRO-LIFE QUOTES:

"Not even one abortion per week is acceptable. Not one per month. Not one per year. Not one in our lifetime...The dignity of the human person begins at the moment of conception, not at birth. The dignity, as recognized by the signers of the Declaration of Independence, is bestowed by the Creator, and no one has the right to destroy innocent unborn life." Archbishop Samuel Aquila

"God, the Lord of life, has entrusted to men the noble mission of safeguarding life, and men must carry it out in a manner worthy of themselves. Life must be protected with the utmost care from the moment of conception: abortion and infanticide are abominable crimes." [nefanda sunt crimina] Vatican Council II, Church in the Modern World #51

Catholic Home Missions Collection—next weekend, April 26-27!

What Is a Home Mission Diocese? Home mission dioceses are those Catholic dioceses in the United States, its territories, and former territories that cannot provide basic pastoral services without outside help. Basic pastoral services include Mass, the sacraments, religious education, and ministry training for priests, deacons, religious sisters, and laypeople. Nearly 40% of dioceses in the United States and its territories are considered home missions. Please prayerfully consider donating to this collection to provide the sacraments and formation in the Catholic Faith to those in home mission dioceses.

Thank Mom for Life plants for Mother's Day: With abortions rising 39 percent in just two years in our state, MCCL (MN Citizens Concerned for Life) is committed to changing the culture and rebuilding a pro-life Minnesota—and they are doing it through expanded outreach, social media, presentations, and youth events, and so much more. One way to impact our culture for life is by honoring moms! That's what MCCL's annual Mother's Day Project is all about, and we need your help. Thank Mom for life on Mother's Day, with a plant with a "Thanks Mom for Life" button attached. Begonias, African Violet plants, and Mini Rose bushes will be available at all Masses on Mother's Day weekend, May 10 and 11. Suggested donation for the Begonias and Violets is $8.00 and the Mini Rose bush, $10.00. This project honors moms and raises funds to save precious lives by furthering pro-life efforts.
